Control Evaluator Guidelines for CONTROL Evaluation for Cats or Rabbits

- ♥ This evaluation for cats or rabbits must be administered by a licensed veterinarian and must be fully and successfully completed before going on any Supervised Visit.
- ♥ Candidates for membership must be at least 18 years old and may not evaluate their own pets or pets they may become certified with. The Control Evaluation and the Visit Evaluation are to be done by two different evaluators and may not be in the same family or household.
- ♥ Your pet must be a minimum of one year old before beginning the certification process. If a rescue, re-homed or career change pet, it is strongly recommended you take a minimum of 6 months to bond with this pet and get to know its reactions in various situations.
- ♥ The handler may talk to the cat or rabbit and encourage them, but no treats, calming or anxiety meds, or other incentives may be used during the evaluation.
- ♥ The Love on a Leash® Control Evaluation tests the temperament of the cat or rabbit and the amount of control the handler has in various situations. These guidelines are meant to give the evaluator objective criteria and to make the test as consistent as possible in all parts of the country.

1. I have read and will abide by the Love on a Leash® Evaluator Guidelines (pages 2-5) accompanying this form when evaluating this team.

As an evaluator you are responsible for deciding whether or not this team is ready to begin their supervised visits. By signing off on a team you acknowledge that this team has satisfactorily performed all required tasks on the Love on a Leash® Control Evaluation. Please include a business card in case you need to be contacted by National Love on a Leash®.

2. I, the evaluator, have verified that this pet is at least one year old.

If the cat or rabbit is not at least one year old, then the cat or rabbit may not be evaluated until they reach one year.

3. Is the pet healthy and clean?

The cat or rabbit should be prepared for this evaluation as he would be for an actual visit. He should be clean, brushed, and trimmed if necessary. His nails should be trimmed and filed so they will not easily scratch. He should be visibly well cared for.

4. Is the pet up to date on all recommended vaccinations?

The cat or rabbit must be up to date with any shots mandated in your state.

5. Does the pet owner safely control the pet around people and other animals?

The pet should be comfortable in the handler's arms or on a table. Even if the cat or rabbit is friendly, the handler must be mindful of other animals that may also be on visits who may not be as friendly. The cat or rabbit should never be placed on the ground or near another animal that the handler does not know. You should have one of your employees approach the cat or rabbit in an erratic manner, and observe both the handler and the pet to make sure the pet does not become scared and try to run, scratch, swipe, swat, or bite.

6. Does the pet wear a leash, collar, harness, or other control device?

Love on a Leash® requires all pets to be on a 4-foot leash at all times while on any Love on a Leash® visit. The cat or rabbit may wear either a collar or harness to which the leash must be attached. For this evaluation, the pet should wear and be comfortable in a collar or harness with a 4-foot leash.

7. Is the pet house-trained? If No, does this appear to be a problem? (For example, rabbits should be held in a towel.)

The cat or rabbit should not urinate when fearful or anxious. Similar to a dog, the handler should allow the cat or rabbit ample time to do their business before a visit begins.

8. Has the pet been well-mannered during this exam?

The cat or rabbit must have appeared to have enjoyed being examined, touched after being petted, and held during this exam.

9. Does the pet seem to enjoy being touched or handled by people other than the handler?

You, the veterinarian, should pet and hold the cat or rabbit to see if the pet enjoys being touched and held by someone other than the handler. Employees at the veterinarian's office should also pet the cat or rabbit to be sure they enjoy being petted and held by multiple people, if possible. While petting the cat or rabbit, also pet the nose and ears. The pet should appear relaxed and content.

10. Does the pet's personality seem to suggest that this pet would make a good therapy pet?

Are there areas that could use some work? These may be areas that would disqualify the cat or rabbit for therapy work or there may be something that the evaluator feels one or both could be better with practice or training. A couple of examples may be that the cat or rabbit only enjoys being looked at and not petted, or the cat or rabbit appears nervous. Or perhaps the cat or rabbit enjoys being petted for a very short period of time and then swipes or bites whoever is petting him.

11. Are you comfortable recommending this pet for Love on a Leash® pet therapy certification?

Does the cat or rabbit seem relaxed and enjoy being in the company of others? If there is no fear or anxiety detected, and no sudden urination, then this animal should enjoy being a therapy pet.

12. Does this pet exhibit signs of struggling, fighting, scratching, swiping, or biting?

If there is the slightest sign of stress exhibited through struggling, fighting, scratching, swiping, swatting, or biting, the evaluation must be discontinued, and the pet must be disqualified.

13. Does the pet or handler appear to have any training difficulties, physical or emotional limitations, or behavior problems that may interfere with their ability to work as a therapy team?

Are there areas that could use some work? These may be areas that would disqualify or show concern for the pet or handler for therapy work or they may just be something that the evaluator feels they could use more time to become a better therapy team. You may offer suggestions to help the handler better prepare the cat or rabbit for therapy work.

Visit Evaluator Guidelines for VISIT Evaluation for Cats or Rabbits

- ♥ This evaluation is to be filled out by a Visit Captain, or an experienced Love on a Leash® therapy member. If there are no Love on a Leash® teams in your area, an experienced facility employee (i.e. Recreational Therapist or Activities Director, etc.) may substitute as an evaluator who agrees to supervise you for the minimum 10 visit hours. You must first contact Love on a Leash® by email to request pre-approval of a substitute supervisor at info@loveonaleash.org. A completed APPROVED substitute form must be included with your application packet for processing. Whenever possible, however, a team in training must pair up with a certified Love on a Leash® team for their supervised visits. If you do not seek pre-approval for a substitute, your application packet will be rejected.
- ♥ All parts of the evaluation must be performed with the cat or rabbit on a 4-foot leash. Tied, looped, stretchable, or retractable leashes are not permitted. Additionally, no prong, pinch or electronic collars, of any kind, may be used.
- ♥ The handler may talk to the cat or rabbit and encourage them, but no treats, calming or anxiety meds, or other incentives may be used during the supervised visit.
- ♥ Certified members may not evaluate/supervise their own pets with a candidate for membership, nor pets they share a home with, nor pets they may become certified with. Family members may not evaluate/supervise another family member for certification.
- ♥ Supervised visits may not occur at the handler's place of employment or places they are regularly associated with.
- ♥ Hardware stores, pet stores, malls, fairs, festivals, social events, community walks, public events, or similar are unacceptable supervised visits for teams in training.
- ♥ If the cat or rabbit shows any aggression towards or injures any person or animal (including swiping or swatting), the evaluation must stop and an Incident Report must be filed with National Love on a Leash®.
- ♥ The recommended ratio of Love on a Leash® supervisors to teams in training is 1 supervisor per 1 team in training, or 1 supervisor per 2 teams in training (without the supervisor's pet present). Non-Love on a Leash® substitute supervisors may only supervise 1 team in training per hour.
- ♥ The Love on a Leash® Visit Evaluation is to evaluate the team and the amount of control the handler has in various situations. These guidelines are meant to give the evaluator objective criteria and to make the evaluation as consistent as possible in all parts of the country.

The Supervisor/Evaluator at the first supervised visit, must check the Control Evaluation to be sure the date of evaluation is within one year, and the questions are all marked correctly. If they are, then continue to fill out the first visit information on the Supervised Visits Log. This same procedure is to be done by the Supervisor/Evaluator who will be signing the Visit Evaluation form. This is to ensure that the Control Evaluation has been successfully completed and passed within the one-year time frame.**

1. On how many visits have you observed this therapy team?

In order to sign the Visit Evaluation form, you must have observed the team for at least five (5) of the mandatory ten (10) hours, including their final visit. The Visit Evaluation form may not be signed until the minimum 10 hours of supervised visits have been completed. The 5 minimum visits do not need to be consecutive, as long as the final visit has been with you. That way, you may officially complete and sign the team's Visit Evaluation form.

Additionally, if you do not feel this team is ready to be certified after 10 hours, you may request additional visits under your supervision. Currently, there are three additional blank lines on the Supervised Visit Log (p.6) for this purpose. You may ask the team in training for more than three additional visits, if needed. If asking for additional training or supervision, do not sign the Visit Evaluation until the team has completed any extra supervised visits and you are satisfied that the team is ready to be certified.

2. Does the cat or rabbit seem to like people and relate well to people?

Cats should look relaxed and have a happy demeanor. They should not be stiff or tense or aggressively flicking their tails. Cats should have 'soft' eyes – their eyes should blink slowly and not be wide-eyed or alert which can denote fearfulness. Cats may sit down and tuck their paws underneath themselves, a sign of relaxation. Cats should not hiss, growl, swipe, swat, or spit. Relaxed and happy cats may purr.

Rabbits show their mood largely through the position of their ears. Relaxed rabbits have their ears straight up and close together, facing outward or forward. Ears that are back or pinned against the head may indicate anxiety. The rabbit's entire body language should also be monitored. Relaxed rabbits will lay down and look restful. Relaxed rabbits may sprawl out with their rear legs out to one side and their front feet bucked forward. Rabbits are also known to make sounds when they are happy. Purring or sighing are signs of a content rabbit. An agitated or fearful rabbit may ignore you, flick their feet at you, or be perched ready to hop away.

3. Is the cat or rabbit under control of the handler when it interacts with others?

As with our dog therapy members, both cats and rabbits must be on a 4-foot leash at all times when on a visit. They may use a harness or a collar that attaches the leash to the cat or rabbit. Handlers may carry their cats or rabbits in their arms. Some handlers use a pet stroller to carry and contain their therapy cat or rabbit while on a visit, in addition to the harness/collar and leash. Be sure the stroller is not too big or bulky – the location must be able to accommodate it. The handler should never be so engrossed in conversation that he/she does not know what their cat or rabbit is doing at all times.

4. Is the handler able to get the pet close enough to people during visits?

It is a good idea to carry a lap blanket or towel for those who wish to hold their cat or rabbit, to protect against scratches should the animal become spooked. The handler should be right there with their pet and paying attention to them while conversing.

5. Is the handler able to initiate conversations with people & stimulate interest in their cat or rabbit?

It can be difficult at times to strike up a conversation with a complete stranger. However, while doing therapy work this will more than likely occur at each visit. Can the handler walk up to a person and talk to them? Does the handler attempt to converse with those who do not wish to speak or are unable to speak? Does the handler present their cat or rabbit in a positive and happy manner?

6. Does the handler relate well with people in general?

Does the handler enjoy talking to people and seem genuinely interested in those they are visiting? Does the handler check before approaching to ensure there are no allergy issues?

7. Based on your observations, do you feel this team is a good candidate for pet therapy at this time?

Considering all of these questions, does this team appear ready to be on their own without any further supervision? If you do not feel the team is ready, additional visits should be requested by you and under your supervision.

8. Would you like this cat or rabbit and its handler to continue visiting this facility?

This answer should be YES. If not, please mark NO on the Visit Evaluation and note the reason. The Visit Evaluation should not be signed off at this point. If extra visits may help, please request them. If not, let the team know you are not comfortable signing them off due to the issue(s) present.

9. Is there any behavior you would like them to work on that would not disqualify this team for therapy work?

Some examples could be, but are not limited to:

- ♥ The cat, rabbit, or handler is a bit shy and could use more training.
- ♥ The cat or rabbit is exhibiting concern, but is not reacting to types of hospital equipment such as wheelchairs or a walker, etc.
- ♥ The handler is still working on specific sound sensitivity issues.
